COMMON PLEAS COURT NEWS.

The common pleas court was again opened for a second session of this term, Monday morning with Judge George E. Martin of Lancaster presiding. Judge Martin arrived on No. 30 on Monday morning and court was opened by Court Constable Thomas Collins, at 9:30. The docket was gone over and quite a few cases set for trial to a jury, which will be drawn in a few days. The jury cases will begin on December 24.

The cases which were for trial to the Judge were taken up at once and several were disposed of, the records of which show as follows:

Case No. 3444. Mary L. Dean against George T. Highley and others, for partition. This case was dismissed at the cost of the plaintiff for want of prosecution.

Case No. 3609. The Logan Natural Gas and Fuel company, against the St. Mary's Drilling company for injunction. This case was settled out of court, the terms, however, not being made known at present. It will be reported under this head later.

Case No. 3752. Henry Dennis against Blanch Dennis for divorce. Dismissed for want of prosecution at the cost of the plaintiff. The parties in this case have been living together and accordingly the case was allowed to be dismissed.

Case No. 3763. C. W. Dowler against Elmer Hamilton, for money, on appeal from a justice's court, assigned for trial to a jury on December 24. Plaintiff given leave to file amended petition.

Case No. 1922. The State of Ohio against Frederick Inboden for rape. Assigned for trial on December 19th.

Wednesday's procedure in the common pleas court was quite a bit shorter than the preceding days this week, but action was taken in several important cases. Court was adjourned Wednesday evening until Friday morning, owing to business of importance in other counties calling Judge Martin away.

A record of Wednesday's proceedings is as follows:

Case No. 3641. Thomas B. Wolf against Isiah Defenbaugh, et al., to quiet title. This case was tried upon the evidence to Judge Martin on Wednesday and a decree quieting the title was ordered.

Case No. 3887. Jeremiah Glancy against the Hocking Valley Railway company on appeal. Upon application of the plaintiff he was given leave to file an amended petition within thirty days.

Case No. 3911. Greenfield Brothers against Charles Strick, Sr., on appeal. This case was called up for hearing but continued at the cost of both parties.

Case No. 3912. Carrie D. Judy against Claud E. Carroll for bastardy. This case was tried previously in this term, to a jury, the trial occupying some three days, and resulted in a verdict of guilty. A motion for a new trial was filed by the defendant and argued to Judge Martin, Wednesday, but he took the case under advisement and will announce his decision later.

Case No. 3937. The H. Mitthoff company, a corporation, against M. G. Harbaugh doing business under the name and style of the Harbaugh Hardware company, for money, amount claimed, $563.94 with interest. Judgment by default was rendered against the defendant for the sum of $611.50.

The case of the State of Ohio on relation of Stevenson, against the Board of County Commissioners of Hocking county for injunction, was called up and submitted to the court on application for a temporary restraining order. The contention in this case is that in letting the contract for the building of a bridge and making the fill this side of the Falls Mill, which was washed away at the March flood, was done illegally, and the plaintiff asks that the fulfilling of the contract be enjoined.

On leaving Wednesday evening, Judge Martin instructed Sheriff Williamson and Clerk of Courts, Soliday to draw from the jury wheel, twenty-five names for a petit jury to try the jury cases that are to be heard later in this term. The names were drawn Thursday morning and are now in the hands of Sheriff Williamson, who will serve each with summons to appear at the court house in Logan on the second day of December, 1907, at nine o'clock.

A list of the names drawn for this jury is as follows:
